

I will praise thee, O Lord, with my whole heart, I will glorify thy name for evermore.

THANKSGIVING
FOR

Our late wonderful Deliverance!
not turned away our prayer,

But when we called upon him
is the Lord of our conflicts,
To Those who have made use of His Power in the late Difficult Times.

of thy righteousness, and of thy righteousness, O God, who is like unto

O GOD thou art Great, and doest wonderful things, thou art God alone.

My righteousness, O God, is very high; who hast done great things: O God, who is like unto

A I will

A Thanksgiving for our

I will praise thee, O Lord, with my whole Heart, I will glorifie thy Name for evermore.

For thy Mercy is exceeding great towards us : Thou hast delivered these Nations from the extreamest Dangers.

Blessed be the Lord, who hath not turned away our Prayer, nor his Mercy from us :

But when we called upon him in the time of our Distress, he heard us, and wrought a mighty Salvation for us.

Therefore shall my Tongue speak of thy Righteousness, and of thy Praise all the Day long :

I will alwaies be giving thanks unto thee, for what thou hast done.

Every Day will I bless thee : And praise thy Name for ever and ever.

late wonderful Deliverance

O Magnifie the Lord with me; and let us exalt his Name to-ther.

Let all the People praise thee,
O God, let all the People praise thee.

Let every good Man sing of thy Praise without ceasing: O my God,
I will give Thanks unto thee for ever.

I will love the Lord a so, who hath heard the voice of our Supplication; and I will call upon him
as long as I live.

I will hope in thy Mercy, That I shall still praise thee more and more,

And, good Lord, finish what thou hast begun: Perfect that which concerneth us (for thy Mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever) and forsake not the Works of thine
own Hand:

A Thanksgiving for our

Compleat our Deliverance, by setting the Minds of all Men among us; And disposing them to rejoyce in thy Salvation.

Let thy Power and Glory appear also in Ireland, as it hath done in England and Scotland.

Rescue our Brethren there from the Hands of deceitful and blood-thirsty Men: And preserve the Reformed Religion there, with all the just Rights and Liberties of that Kingdom.

Send them seasonable Relief and Succour: That they may not dye but live; to shew forth the Prailes of the Lord, and to tell of all his wondrous Works.

Be merciful unto them, O God, be merciful unto them: And shelter them under thy Almighty Protection, until the present Calamities, under which they are saln, be overpast.

Be

late wonderful Deliverance.

Be thou their hiding-Place, to preserve them in time of Trouble :
And, at last, compass them about with Songs of Deliverance.

Let all these three Kingdoms be united in thy Praises, and triumph in thy Salvation : Saying continually, Blessed be the Lord, who takes Delight in the Prosperity of his Servants.

And then let this thy Goodness never be forgotten by us : But had in everlasting remembrance.

Give us Grace to pay thee our Vows; which we made unto thee
in the Day of our Trouble.

Teach us thy Way, O God, and enable us to walk in thy Truth :
O knit our Hearts unto thee, that we may fear thy Name.

Preserve us, O Lord, that we break not again thy Commandments; after thou hast given us
such a Deliverance as this:

But

A Thanksgiving for our

But may carefully hide thy Word in our Hearts; that we turn not again to folly.

Yea, make us to delight in thy Commandments; that thou mayest still delight to do us Good.

And especially incline us all, to love one another with a pure Heart servently; and to be of one mind,
and to live in Peace: That thou,
the God of Love and Peace, mayest
be with us.

Hear the Prayers, O Lord, of every devout Soul among us, who now cries unto thee, saying; Save thy People in these three Kingdoms, and deliver them not over unto the Will of their Enemies:

Shew thy Servants the Light of thy Countenance, and save them for thy Mercy sake:

Our Soul patiently tarrieth for the Lord: for he is our Help and our Shield:

Our

late wonderful Deliverance.

Our Heart shall rejoyce in him;
because we have hoped in his holy Name.

Let thy merciful Kindness, O Lord, be upon us; according as we do put our Trust in thee.

Amen, for Jesus Christ his sake;
Amen.

F I N I S.

Licensed, July 10. 1689.

L O N D O N,

Printed for Richard Chiswel, at the Rose
and Crown in S. Paul's Church-Yard,

M D C L X X X I X.

2.
Books printed for Richard Chiswel.

A Private Prayer to be used in Difficult Times.
Dr. Cave's Primitive Christianity, or the Religion of the ancient Christians in the first Ages of the Gospel.

— Of the Primitive Church Government.

— Dr. Cumber's Companion to the Altar.

Dr. Patrick's Parable of the Pilgrim.

— Pillar and Ground of Truth.

— Exposition of the Ten Commandments.

— Sermon before the Prince of Orange.

— Sermon before the Queen, at White-Hall.

— Sermon at Covent Garden, the first Sunday in Lent, being the second part of a Sermon before the Prince of Orange.

— Two Sermons against Murmuring & Censuring.

Dr. Towsen's Exposition of the Church Catechism, 4 vol. fol.

Bishop Jewell's Apology for the Church of England.

Bishop Burnet's Abridgment of the History of the Reformation.

— Life of Bishop Bevel, with his Letters.

— Chillingworth's Book against Popery contracted and made more useful. 4°.

Dr. Sherlock's Summary of the Controversies between the Church of England and Church of Rome.

The Plain Man's Reply to the Catholic Missionaries.

Mr. Wake's Preparation for Death.

— His Tracts against Popery, in 2 vol. 4°.

The Protestant Companion, 4°.

Mr. Sellar's Devout Communicant, assisted with Rules for the worthy Receiving: Together with Meditations, Prayers, Anthems, for every Day in the Holy Week.

Valentine's Private Devotions, digested into five Libraries, with Directions and Prayers for the Lord's Day, Sacrament, Day of Death and Judgment.

ri.
e-
of or;

ice

read.

he

nd

tet. ies.

idh
idh
in fix

77